

City of DeFuniak Springs

Proclamation

WHEREAS, on the third Sunday in March of 1998, Anthony M. Johnson was installed as the fourteenth pastor of the Union Springs Missionary Baptist Church of DeFuniak Springs, Florida; and

WHEREAS, Anthony M. Johnson was a true servant of God. He served God with a deep faith, love, and commitment, and he served his family, his Union Springs Missionary Baptist Church family, and his community with the same faith, love, and commitment. Anthony M. Johnson led by example, always showing how to serve others and how to put others before oneself. One of his favorite mottos that he lived by, was "If we can help someone, let's help them;" and

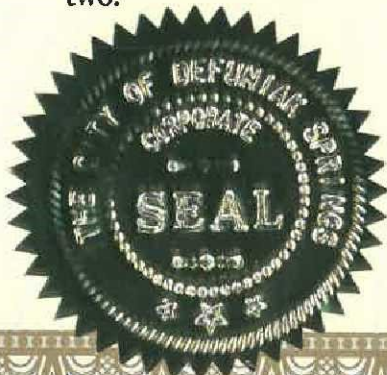

WHEREAS, Anthony M. Johnson was a loving and faithful servant to God, his family, his community, and his Union Springs Missionary Baptist Church family where he served twenty-three years as pastor; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Campbell, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of DeFuniak Springs, Florida, do hereby proclaim in honor of Anthony M. Johnson the renaming of Railroad Street to in the City of DeFuniak Springs and urge all citizens, government officials and employees to recognize and celebrate Anthony M. Johnson for his many accomplishments as he led the congregation for twenty-three years of ministry at Union Springs Missionary Baptist Church and in the City of DeFuniak Springs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the City of DeFuniak Springs to be affixed this 4th day of April of the year of our Lord two thousand twenty-two.

Bob Campbell, Mayor
